« THANK GOD YOU'RE HERE! » is an Australian TV show concept !
We adapted the game for conventions and banquets !

« THANK GOD YOU'RE HERE! » is an improvisation game where your guests will find themselves in funny situations with professional actors.

In front of your audience, one after the other, your guest will have to walk through a door into an unknown situation, greeted by the line "Thank God you're here!". They then had to improvise their way through the scene. Your guest will only have one hint : his costume. Sometimes, it doesn't reveal anything at all... His goal : integrate himself the better he can... You'll laugh for sure!

The possibilities :

- Different decors ;
- 1 host (MC) ;
- 2 actors with different costumes for the skits ;
